

Impact Alliance

A giving strategy for communities to collaborate on an issue and strategically fund critical unmet needs, without creating another nonprofit

Human trafficking, homelessness, the foster care system... these are only a few of the heartbreaking issues that plague our communities year after year. But what if we could put an end to these problems once and for all? That's the driving force behind NCF's Impact Alliance, a revolutionary strategy for community giving that aligns givers, charities, experts, and resources around a single cause for the sole purpose of solving it.

Community impact

We help passionate givers like you link arms to create unprecedented community impact. Guided by a cohesive giving strategy, you can be part of a focused effort that brings about real change.

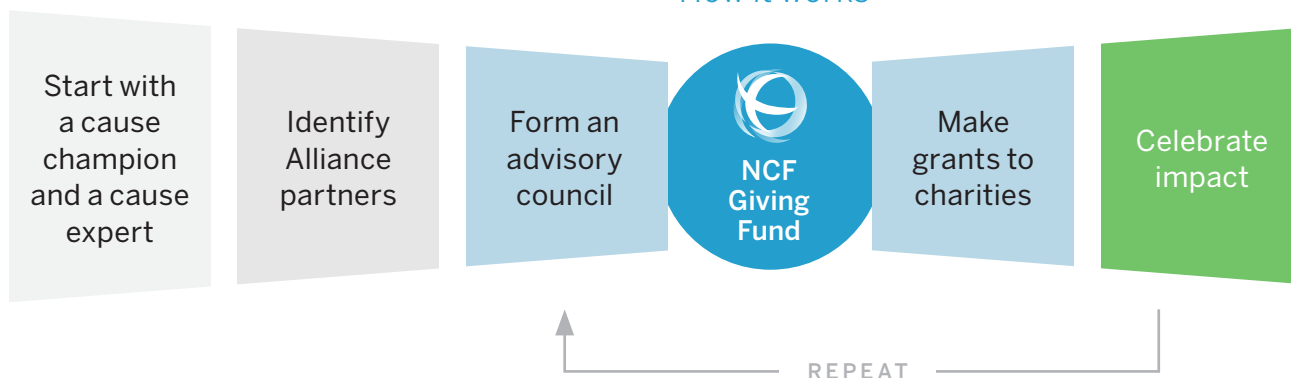

Strategic funding model

As a giver, it is hard to know what the most critical needs are for solving issues in your community, or exactly what to do. Impact Alliance strategically identifies the most critical unmet needs and helps fund them – without creating another nonprofit.

Granting process

Impact Alliance leverages the unique role of NCF as a guide in your local community. With the NCF Giving Fund as the central grantmaking engine, this proven model is efficiently focused on a powerful, 5-step launch process toward impact.

Passionate givers focused on impact

From Seattle to Central Florida, Impact Alliance is empowering givers like you to be the change they've always wanted to see in their cities. If you want to be part of a community effort with more impact than you ever dreamed possible, we want to connect with you.

"Impact Alliance is absolutely the best return on investment you could possibly have with funding something that you're passionate about. It's an alliance of nonprofits, police, community, and everybody else coming together to fight the problem. And the NCF Giving Fund is what makes it all fly."
