

Succession plan

Share your wishes, so we can preserve your legacy of giving after your lifetime

What if you could continue supporting the causes you love and carry on your legacy of generosity for years to come? It's possible with our online succession plan experience at NCF.

With our robust, digital succession plan experience, you can provide final direction to our team about how you'd like us to distribute any balance remaining in your fund after your lifetime. You can choose to name your successors, your favorite charities, or even the ministry of NCF.

In your plan, you can name*:

- People – Name successors, like your kids or grandkids, to continue giving with a fund of their own.
- Charities – Recommend annual grants to your church, favorite ministries, or other charities.
- NCF's ministry – Support the national or local NCF mission of mobilizing resources by inspiring biblical generosity.

Share your intent with 2 questions

If you are adding people to your succession plan, we will ask you two questions as you complete the online experience to be sure we understand and can implement your wishes.

- What information would you like to share with your successors?
- Are your successors permitted to recommend grants to other donor-advised fund providers?

Create your succession plan today

Get started at ncfgiving.com/legacy

Create your plan online today

- Just log in to your Giving Fund, go to the Legacy page, and click on "Create my plan" to begin building your plan.
- Come back any time to update your plan.
- If you have more than one fund with NCF, be sure you make a succession plan for each one.

*Find out what information you'll need to create your plan on the Legacy page in your Giving Fund.