

THE NATIONAL CHRISTIAN FOUNDATION SELECTS DAN STROUD AS CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

ATLANTA, July 1, 2020—The National Christian Foundation (NCF) announced today that Dan Stroud has been selected as Chief Executive Officer. NCF's Board of Directors unanimously approved the appointment last month.

"We are excited to welcome Dan to the NCF family," said Jay Bennett, Chairman of NCF's Board of Directors. "His exceptional gifts and expertise in the areas of leadership, finance, and strategic direction, coupled with a heart for Jesus, make him an ideal fit as we seek to broaden and deepen biblical generosity around the world. There are exciting opportunities on the horizon, and we are confident Dan will lead NCF with strength, compassion, and wisdom."

Stroud joins NCF after an esteemed 34-year career with Nestlé which included tenures as Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer for Nestlé Health Science, and Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of Nestlé Holdings, Inc. and Nestlé USA, the largest company within Nestlé Global.

Stroud completed professional development within the Nestlé Executive Education program at the London Business School, the International Institute for Management Development, and Rive-Reine, Nestlé's corporate training and development center in Switzerland. He holds a Bachelor of Science in Economics and Finance from Bemidji State University.

Stroud joins the National Christian Foundation as thousands of givers from around the country have mobilized more than \$196 million in grants from their NCF Giving Funds (donor-advised funds) in response to the COVID-19 pandemic. NCF's 2020 grants through June were up $115 million – a 22% increase – compared to the same timeframe last year. More than 132,000 grants were distributed to a variety of organizations and causes.

"I am grateful for the opportunity to join the leadership team at NCF. Every day, we have the privilege of coming alongside generous givers who want to respond to God's leading and significantly influence communities around the world. I am thankful, humbled, and energized to be a part of the team that makes that happen," said Stroud.
