

10 ways to share generosity

A checklist of easy ways your family can practice generosity together this Christmas

As 2020 comes to a close, you can flip the script on the consumer mindset and take your family and friends in a totally different direction ... with generosity. Here's a checklist with 10 tips to help you get started:

- SHARE YOUR GENEROSITY STORY with your family to celebrate all God has done.
- REACH OUT TO MISSIONARIES with cards or care packages from your family.
- ENCOURAGE EACH FAMILY MEMBER to think of the most generous person they know, and have them ask that person for one piece of advice to share.
- RESEARCH CHARITIES AS A FAMILY, then pray together about sending one a special gift.
- VOLUNTEER TOGETHER at your local church or ministry during the holidays, and consider continuing to do so in 2021.
- OFFER TO MATCH THE DONATIONS your children give this holiday.
- BRING A SWEET TREAT to your next-door neighbor with a card that shares your family's favorite Bible verse.
- PLAN A FAMILY MISSION TRIP for a week of service next year, at home or abroad.
- OPEN A GIVING FUND AT NCF for each of your kids or grandkids as a Christmas gift this year, and pre-fund it so they can experience granting to a charity immediately.
- MAKE AN ANONYMOUS GIFT to someone your family has found in need.

"They are to do good, to be rich in good works, to be generous and ready to share, thus storing up treasure for themselves as a good foundation for the future, so that they may take hold of that which is truly life."
